

The Riley Elizabeth Houser Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship has been established by family and friends in memory of Riley Elizabeth Houser. She was a 2021 graduate of Central Mountain High School and was an integral part of the CMHS Lady Wildcat Softball Team. Her legacy of kindness and love for the game of softball will live on through the recipients of this scholarship.

About the Scholarship:

- Recipient will receive a one-time scholarship in the amount of $1,111, an amount determined in honor of Riley's softball number.
- Applicant must be a graduating senior of the CMHS Lady Wildcat Softball Team and plan to attend a two or four-year college.
- Applicant must submit a 1-2 page essay by April 15, 2023.

The Essay Should Include:

- How playing the game of softball alongside Riley impacted you as a player and/or person.
- What the game of softball means to you.
- Your future education and career plans.

How to Apply:

Please email your essay to Melissa Bottorf, Executive Director at keystonecentralfoundation@gmail.com by April 15, 2023 for consideration.
